CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

21. Section 375.141 RSMo (Supp. 2010) provides, in part:
 1. The director may suspend, revoke, refuse to issue or refuse to renew an insurance producer license for any one or more of the following causes:
 - (1) Intentionally providing materially incorrect, misleading, incomplete or untrue information in the license application;

(2) Violating any insurance laws, or violating any regulation, subpoena or order of the director or of another insurance commissioner in any other state;

(3) Obtaining or attempting to obtain a license through material misrepresentation or fraud;

* * *

(6) Having been convicted of a felony or crime involving moral turpitude[.]

22. Title 20 CSR 100-4.100(2)(A) Required Response to Inquiries by the Consumer Affairs Division provides:

(A) Upon receipt of any inquiry from the division, every person shall mail to the division an adequate response to the inquiry within twenty (20) days from the date the division mails the inquiry. An envelope's postmark shall determine the date of mailing. When the requested response is not produced by the person within twenty (20) days, this nonproduction shall be deemed a violation of this rule, unless the person can demonstrate that there is reasonable justification for that delay

23. Section 564.011 RSMo (1986) states:

1. A person is guilty of attempt to commit an offense when, with the purpose of committing the offense, he does any act which is a substantial step towards the commission of the offense. A "substantial step" is conduct which is strongly corroborative of the firmness of the actor's purpose to complete the commission of the offense.

2. It is no defense to a prosecution under this section that the offense attempted was, under the actual attendant circumstances, factually or legally impossible of commission, if such offense could have been committed had the attendant circumstances been as the actor believed them to be.

3. Unless otherwise provided, an attempt to commit an offense is a:

- (1) Class B felony if the offense attempted is a class A felony.
- (2) Class C felony if the offense attempted is a class B felony.
- (3) Class D felony if the offense attempted is a class C felony.
- (4) Class A misdemeanor if the offense attempted is a class D felony.
- (5) Class C misdemeanor if the offense attempted is a misdemeanor of any degree.

(Bold emphasis in original.)

24. Section 565.070 RSMo (1986) states:

1. A person commits the crime of assault in the third degree if:
 - (1) He attempts to cause or recklessly causes physical injury to another person; or
 - (2) With criminal negligence he causes physical injury to another person by means of a deadly weapon; or
 - (3) He purposely places another person in apprehension of immediate physical injury; or
 - (4) He recklessly engages in conduct which creates a grave risk of death or serious physical injury to another person; or
 - (5) He knowingly causes physical contact with another person knowing the other person will regard the contact as offensive or provocative.
2. Assault in the third degree is a class A misdemeanor unless committed under subdivision (3) or (5) of subsection 1 in which case it is a class C misdemeanor.

25. Section 578.150 RSMo (Supp. 2002) states, in part:

1. A person commits the crime of failing to return leased or rented property if, with the intent to deprive the owner thereof, he purposefully fails to return leased or rented personal property to the place and within the time specified in an agreement in writing providing for the leasing or renting of such personal property. In addition, any person who has leased or rented personal property of another who conceals the property from the owner, or who otherwise sells, pawns, loans, abandons or gives away the leased or rented property is guilty of the crime of failing to return leased or rented property. The provisions of this section shall apply to all forms of leasing and rental agreements, including, but not limited to, contracts which provide the consumer options to buy the leased or rented personal property, lease-purchase agreements and rent-to-own contracts. For the purpose of determining if a violation of this section has occurred, leasing contracts which provide options to buy the merchandise are owned by the owner of the property until such time as the owner endorses the sale and transfer of ownership of the leased property to the lessee.

5. Any person who has leased or rented personal property of another who destroys such property so as to avoid returning it to the owner shall be guilty of property damage pursuant to section 569.100 or 569.120, in addition to being in violation of this section.

7. Failure to return leased or rented property is a class A misdemeanor unless the property involved has a value of five hundred dollars or more, in which case failing to return leased or rented property is a class C felony.

26. Moral turpitude is an act of baseness, vileness or depravity in the private and social duties which a man owes to his fellowman or to society in general, contrary to the accepted and customary rule of right and duty between man and man; everything "done contrary to justice, honesty, modesty, and good morals." In re Frick, 694 S.W.2d 473, 479 (Mo. banc 1985) (quoting In re Wallace, 19 S.W.2d 625 (Mo. banc 1929)). In Brebe v. Missouri Dept. of Elementary and Secondary Education, the court referred to three classifications of crimes: (1) crimes that necessarily involve moral turpitude, such as frauds (Category 1 crimes); (2) crimes "so obviously petty that conviction carries no suggestion of moral turpitude," such as illegal parking (Category 2 crimes); and (3) crimes that "may be saturated with moral turpitude," yet do not involve it necessarily, such as willful failure to pay income tax or refusal to answer questions before a congressional committee

(Category 3 crimes). 213 S.W.3d 720, 725 (Mo. App. W.D. 2007).

27. In State Board of Nursing v. Harmon, the Administrative Hearing Commission found that stealing is a Category 1 crime. No. 10-1224 BN (Mo. Admin. Hrg. Comm'n, February 18, 2011). An essential element of stealing is dishonesty; dishonesty is a lack of integrity or a disposition to defraud or deceive. State Board of Nursing v. Blaine, No. 08-2134 BN (Mo. Admin. Hrg. Comm'n, September 18, 2009). Stealing is a crime involving moral turpitude. Id. Further, the Administrative Hearing Commission found that the crimes of felony theft and attempt to commit theft in Trice v. Dept. of Ins., Fin. Inst. and Prof. Reg'n, constituted Category 1 crimes. No. 10-1006 DI (Mo. Admin. Hrg. Comm'n, September 2, 2010).
28. Fraud is a knowing misrepresentation of the truth or concealment of a material fact to induce another to act to his or her detriment. Financial Solutions and Assocs. v. Carnahan, 316 S.W.3d 518, 528 (Mo. App. W.D. 2010). "Fraud is an intentional perversion of truth to induce another, in reliance on it, to part with some valuable thing belonging to him. It necessarily includes dishonesty, which is a lack of integrity or a disposition to defraud or deceit. Misrepresentation is a falsehood or untruth made with the intent and purpose of deceit." State Board of Nursing v. Kinkade, No. 10-1602 BN (Mo. Admin. Hrg. Comm'n, February 22, 2011) (internal citations omitted). "Material" means "having real importance or great consequences[.]" Director of Dept. of Ins., Fin. Inst. and Prof. Reg'n v. Louderback and Premier Financial Services, No. 07-1376 DI (Mo. Admin. Hrg. Comm'n, May 21, 2009) (internal citations omitted).
29. A plea of guilty is an admission as to the facts alleged in the information. See, e.g., Wallace v. State, 308 S.W.3d 283, 286-7 (Mo. App. S.D. 2010).
30. The principal purpose of § 375.141 RSMo is not to punish licensees or applicants, but to protect the public. Ballew v. Ainsworth, 670 S.W.2d 94, 100 (Mo. App. E.D. 1984).
31. The Director may refuse to issue an insurance producer license to Wilson pursuant to § 375.141.1(6), RSMo (Supp. 2010) because Wilson was convicted of a felony, in that Wilson pleaded guilty to the Class D Felony of Attempted Stealing Over $150.00 by Deceit. State of Missouri v. Jeffrey L. Wilson, Case No. 599905 (21F89-3097).
32. The Director may refuse to issue an insurance producer license to Wilson pursuant to § 375.141.1(6), RSMo (Supp. 2010) because Wilson was convicted of a crime of moral turpitude, in that Wilson pleaded guilty to the Class D

Felony of Attempted Stealing. State of Missouri v. Jeffrey L. Wilson, Case No. 599905 (21F89-3097).

33. The Director may refuse to issue an insurance producer license to Wilson pursuant to § 375.141.1(6), RSMo (Supp. 2010) because Wilson was convicted of a felony, in that Wilson pleaded guilty to the Class C Felony of Failure to Return Rented Personal Property. State of Missouri v. Jeffrey Lewis Wilson, Case No. 02CR737087-01.
34. The Director may refuse to issue an insurance producer license to Wilson pursuant to § 375.141.1(2), RSMo (Supp. 2010) because Wilson violated the insurance regulations of Missouri by failing to give an adequate response to a Division inquiry within 20 days or demonstrate a reasonable justification for his delayed response as required by 20 CSR 100-4.100(2)(A), which is cause to discipline under § 375.141.1(2).
35. The Director may refuse to issue an insurance producer license to Wilson pursuant to § 375.141.1(1), RSMo (Supp. 2010) because Wilson intentionally provided materially incorrect, misleading, incomplete or untrue information in the Application, in that he failed to disclose that he pleaded guilty to the Class C Misdemeanor of Assault in the 3rd degree in response to Background Question No. 1.
36. The Director may refuse to issue an insurance producer license to Wilson pursuant to § 375.141.1(3), RSMo (Supp. 2010) because Wilson attempted to obtain a license through material misrepresentation or fraud, in that he failed to disclose the Class C Misdemeanor of Assault in the 3rd degree, which is material because the Department uses that information in determining whether or not to issue, renew, or revoke a license.
37. Wilson pleaded guilty to two felonies: the Class D Felony of Attempted Stealing Over $150.00 by Deceit, which is also a crime of moral turpitude, and the Class C Felony of Failure to Return Rented Personal Property. Each is an independent reason for the Director to refuse Wilson's license. Additionally, Wilson provided incorrect and untrue information on his Application by failing to disclose the Class C Misdemeanor of Assault in the 3rd degree on his Application, and by doing so attempted to obtain a license through material misrepresentation. Finally, Wilson failed to give an adequate response to a Division inquiry within 20 days or demonstrate a reasonable justification for his delayed response as required by regulation. For all of the reasons given in this Petition, the Director has considered Wilson's history and all of the circumstances surrounding Wilson's Application and exercises his discretion in summarily refusing Wilson's insurance producer license.

38. This order is in the public interest.

ORDER

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the insurance producer license of Jeffrey Lewis Wilson is hereby summarily REFUSED.

SO ORDERED.
